with GOODcoins

Here's how you do it

- You save electricity at home
- You earn rewards based on how much you save (they're called GOODcoins)
- Then you choose the equipment you want to help Southlake Regional Health Foundation with

Helping Southlake

- Two choices
 - Paediatric monitor
 - Measures the heart rate, blood pressure, temperature and other key vital signs when a child is recovering from surgery
 - Diagnostic imaging radiology workstation
 - Provides quick and accurate reading of an MRI scan of a young person with a suspected concussion

engagingNewmarketTM

The campaign is a collaboration of Newmarket-Tay Power Distribution, IBM Canada Ltd., the Town of Newmarket, Southlake Regional Health Centre and other members of our community. We're working with zerofootprint, the software and rewards company that developed GOODcoins.

peaksaver PLUS and GOODcoins

- peaksaver PLUS is your gateway to engagingNewmarket and turning your energy conservation into rewards that help Southlake Regional Health Centre take care of our children.
