

To whom it my concern,

While I am not a local resident, I am a citizen of southern Ontario and feel strongly that we need to maintain and protect our environmentally sensitive lands. Unfortunately the present move to free up such land and imperil watersheds is a dangerous trend of these times. I implore you to protect our environment, we all have a stake in the environmental health of our province.

Sincerely,
Kathy Bresnahan